The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, May 31. 1722.

Boſton, April 2.

The Speech of his Excellency William Burnet, Eſq; Captain General, and Governour in Chief, in and over the Provinces of New-York, New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, and Vice-Admiral of the ſame, &c.

To the General Aſſembly of the Province of New-Jerſey, &c. March 1721-2.

Gentlemen,

THE Choice which the Country has made of you to repreſent them, gives me a happy Opportunity of knowing their Sentiments, now when they have been fully informed of mine in the moſt publick Manner. I have no Reaſon to doubt, that after ſo much Time given them to weigh and conſider every Particular, you bring along with you their hearty Reſolutions to ſupport His Majeſty's Government in ſuch an ample and honourable Manner, as will become you to offer, and me to accept.

And in doing this, I muſt recommend it to you, not to think of me ſo much as the inferior Officers of this Government, who want your Care more, and whoſe Salaries have hitherto amounted to a very ſmall Share of the publick Expence.

I cannot neglect this Occaſion of congratulating you upon the Treaſures lately diſcovered in the Bowels of the Earth, which cannot fail of circulating for the General Good, the Increaſe of Trade, and the raiſing the Value of Eſtates. And now that you are juſt beginning to taſte of new Bleſſings, I cannot but remind you of thoſe you have ſo long enjoyed, and without which all other Advantages would but have increaſed your Sufferings, under a Popiſh King and a French Government.

You can aſcribe your Deliverance from theſe, to Nothing but the glorious Revolution, begun by King William the Third, of Immortal Memory, and compleated by the happy Acceſſion of His preſent Majeſty King George to the Throne of Great-Britain, and his entire Succeſs againſt his Rebellious Subjects at home, and all his Enemies abroad.

To this remarkable Deliverance, directed by an over-ruling Hand of Providence, you owe the Preſervation of your Laws and Liberties, the ſecure Enjoyment of your Property, and the free Exerciſe of Religion, according to the Dictates of your Conſciences.

Theſe invaluable Bleſſings are ſo viſible among us, and the Miſery of Countries where Tyranny and Perſecution prevail, ſo well known, that I need but mention them to raiſe in your Minds the higheſt Senſe of your Obligations to ſerve GOD, honour your King, and to love your Country.

Stockholm, May 20. The Queen has been indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt, but Yeſterday her Majeſty appeared in Publick as uſual. The King has ſigned an Order to appoint a Council of War, to be held for enquiring into the Affair of Major General Sweriu, againſt whom the Imperial Miniſter Count Freytag has made great Complaints in a Memorial he delivered lately to the Council. It is not yet heard if the Money be received which the Czar was to pay concerning the City of Wybourg, purſuant to the late Treaty of Peace; and 'tis believed that ſome Difficulties have happened with Reſpect to the Regulation of Limits between the two States.

Vienna, May 23. Their Imperial Majeſty's Departure for Preſbourg remains fixed to the 20th of next Month; 'tis not yet declared how long the Royal Family deſign to continue there, or whether the Foreign Miniſters are to follow the Court. Our Miniſtry are very attentive to the Steps of Spain, and 'tis determined to ſend more Troops into Italy. The Diſpoſition of the Italian Courts will be plainly diſcovered as ſoon as Contributions are demanded of them. The Count de Konigſeck is made Governour of Tranſilvania. The young Count d'Althan has obtained the Lordſhip of Jacathurn in Hungary. General Zumjungen ſet out on the 21ſt Inſtant for Sicily, accompanied by General Roma. The Count de Cifuentes continues under Confinement at the Caſtle of Milan, and is not to leave that Place till the Emperour has decided the Affair between him and the Miniſter of Bavaria. Count Ildetis is appointed his Imperial Majeſty's Envoy at Genoa, Florence, and Parma; he is to have a Secretary at each of thoſe Places to manage Affairs in his Abſence. Advices from Warſaw ſay, the Republick of Poland is apprehenſive of the Czar's making an Attempt againſt the City of Dantzick. The three Barks which came hither lately up the Danube with Merchandize from Turkey, are to return thither very ſoon laden with Goods from this Place: It is reſolved to advance that Commerce as much as poſſible, becauſe it is found to be a profitable one.

Ratiſbon, May 28. 'Advices from the Palatinate ſay, that Affairs concerning Religion in that 'Country grow worſe and worſe; extreamly far 'from any Redreſs. That the Schoolmaſter of the 'Reformed at Zebach was taken out of his Bed 'the 22d Inſtant, at Break of Day, by ſome Archers, who bound his Hands ſo faſt with Chains, 'that the Blood ran; then they dragg'd him above 'a League over a thorny and almoſt unpaſſable 'Way bare-footed; that two Men following at 'a Diſtance to ſee whither they led him, were 'made Priſoners, after they were ſhot at with 'Bullets; that being come to Weiſſembourg, the 'Schoolmaſter and one of the Priſoners were 'thrown into the Dungeon of the Caſtle, and the 'third into another dark Hole; that a certain 'Perſon who ſeemed to compaſſionate them, call'd 'to them in the Caſtle, and told them, that if 'they would turn Roman Catholicks, they ſhould 'be immediately ſet at Liberty.
